International Association for the Study of Traditional Asian Medicine

Interim Report from Paris, 15 September 1990

1/ Incorporation

Thanks to Carol LADERMAN's efforts, IASTAM, which had been incorporated in 1979 in Australia, will soon be legally re-incorporated in the State of New York. The purposes for which this not-for-profit corporation is being formed are to promote, by discussions and writings, the scholarly study of Asian medicine, of its various traditions, both in historical sources and in current practice, and of its place in the sociology and economy of contemporary health care systems.

5/ Fourth International Congress

IASTAM was founded in 1979 in the wake of the First International Congress on Traditional Asian Medicine [ICTAM I], organized by the lamented Professor Arthur L. Basham in Canberra (Australia). ICTAM II took place in Surabaya (Indonesia) in 1984. ICTAM III was held in Bombay (India) in January 1990. According to our Constitution, the "Fourth International Congress on Traditional Asian Medicine" [ICTAM IV], to be organized under the aegis of IASTAM, should take place in 1994.

Exciting suggestions and fruitful conversations have induced the executive committee of the association to think that Japan would be the ideal venue. Consequently, the President of IASTAM has officially written to Professor Yasuo Otsuka, Honorary Fellow of IASTAM, to Professor Keiji Yamada, Recipient of the Basham Medal 1990, and to Professor Shizu Sakai, Council Member of IASTAM, to respectfully request their help and invite them to establish a committee to explore the possibility of holding ICTAM IV in Japan in August 1994.

6/ Newsletter

The ASIAN MEDICINE NEWSLETTER is published twice a year, in May and November, to be circulated free of charge to the paid members of IASTAM. However, we were unable to publish this year's spring issue in due time. We apologize for the delay, and we shall be publishing a special, double-size issue in late November. Thus, the Asian Medicine Newsletter, no. 14 (November 1990) will have thirty-two dense pages carrying extensive book reviews and research notes. Our expectations are that this increase in the number of pages will give it more impact. If the new format stands up to the test, we would then perpetuate it.

This issue will include a questionnaire asking our members for information about their affiliation, interests, and recent publications. This information will be used to compile a DIRECTORY, which would be published in 1991, to be circulated free of charge to the paid members of the Association.
